EMMER LOOKED GOOD IN EXHIBITION GAME

Frank Emmer, formerly with the local team, broke into an exhibition game between the Cincinnati Reds and the Jersey City Cubs at Jersey City, N. J., on Sunday. In commenting on the game Jack Ryder, sporting editor of the Cincinnati Enquirer, said:

"Frank Emmer played a wonderful defensive game at third base, stopping all kinds of hard-hit balls easily and throwing right to the mark. This lad is real big league stuff, and will show it when he gets a chance in a regular game. Manager Herzog has kept him on the bench and giving him a chance to learn a lot about the way the game is played on the main line. When Emmer's opportunity comes he will be good and ready. If anything should happen to Heinie Groh, Frank could step into the breach and deliver the goods right now."
